

Financial Literacy and Outsmarting Investment Fraud presented by FINRA Foundation and AARP

22 Feb, 1130 - 1300

Know the risk factors for investment fraud, the most common persuasion tactics, and the most powerful prevention strategies.

Being a Savvy Consumer presented by FINRA Foundation and Colorado Division of Securities

23 Feb, 1130-1300

Increase your understanding of the marketplace and learn how to discern between a bargain and a rip-off. Discover resources that will provide you a larger body of information before making important decisions with your money.

Estate Planning presented by the Colorado Attorney General's Office

24 Feb, 1200-1300

Learn basic information on the process of anticipating and arranging for the disposal of your estate, eliminate uncertainties, and maximize the value of your estate.

Home and Car Buying presented by the Colorado Attorney General's Office of Consumer Credit

25 Feb, 1130-1300

Acquire in-depth knowledge of the process involved in making some of your largest financial decisions. Learn tips on how to make the best decision and save money.

Health Insurance and Claims Fraud presented by Colorado Division of Insurance and Colorado Attorney General's Office of Financial Fraud Investigations

26 Feb, 1100-1200

Gain insight into health care scams costing Americans billions of dollars each year. Learn what you can do to fight back.

Contact the A&FRC at (720) 847-6681 by Feb 17th to register for the following workshops. Open to anyone who has an ID Card/base access. Lunch will be provided and all classes will take place in the building 606 auditorium.

Join the savings revolution. Start Small. Think Big.

Take the Pledge!

www.facebook.com/MilitarySaves

